No attempt has been made to address this request; no reply by the Statutory timeframe or information by postal service. I am therefore requesting an Internal Review under S.I. No. 133 of 2007, although I am pointing out under my interpretation of the Statutory Instrument a failure to reply to the request allows one to go direct to appeal.

This AIE request is now overdue with regard to the legal timeframe, i.e. I have not received any of the requested information. Therefore what is the current status?
