This is not the answer to the information request of the 4th March, which legally has to be replied to by 4th April. You better start reading your legislation as it has been clear to date that the Irish Administration considers itself to be a law unto itself - which is exactly the way the system is established as you are denying EU Citizens access to their Rights, there is a failure to comply with the requirements of a Good Administration and yourselves in this administration are exposing the Union to huge financial damages.

Dear Mr. Swords

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your email of 4 March, 2010 which will be brought to the Taoiseach's attention as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Mooney
