

The Ministerial Conference on Transport and Environment

15-16 JANUARY 2002

Objective:

The objective of the Conference is to exchange views and information among major countries on the problems relating to Transport and Environment, and to promote international cooperation in this area through joint action plan etc.

Date and Venue:

The Conference will take place on 15 - 16 January 2002, in Tokyo, Japan.

Host:

Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport, Japan

Expected Participants:

Under consideration.

Provisional Agenda:

- Prevention of Marine Pollution
- Urban Transport and Environment
- Development and Promotion of Environmentally Friendly Vehicles

The Ministerial Conference on Transport and Environment

Marine Pollution

- Marine Pollution caused by maritime transport (ex. Oil Spills)

1997 The Nakhodka Incident

1999 The Erika Incident

- Need to eliminate sub-standard ships
- Need for international cooperation

Air Pollution

- Air Pollution caused by vehicles(ex.NOx, SPM)

○ Possible Solutions -< Improvement of Urban Transport Structures> and <Development and Promotion of Environmentally Friendly Vehicles>

- Common concern of major countries

The Ministerial Conference on Transport and Environment

- January, 2002
- USA, Canada, UK, France, Germany, Netherlands, Australia and other major countries will be invited
- Hosted by The Ministry of Land, Infrastructure and Transport, Japan

Prevention of Marine Pollution

Urban Transport and Environment

Development and Promotion of Environmentally Friendly Vehicles

International Cooperation through a Joint Action Plan etc

Draft Programme:

Mon, 14 Jan.	Welcome Dinner
Tue, 15 Jan.	Opening of the Conference Session 1: Discussion on each agenda item Session 2: Discussion on the Ministerial Joint Statement
Wed, 16 Jan.	Session 3: Adoption of the Ministerial Joint Statement Closing of the Conference Press Release Farewell Lunch

Tentative Schedule

Jul. 2001	Dispatch of an invitation letter (Official request for participation)
Sep. 2001	Preparatory meeting (for each agenda item, if necessary)
Oct. 2001	High-level preparatory meeting (for each agenda item, if necessary)
Jan. 2002	High-level preparatory meeting

The Ministerial Conference on Transport and Environment